2. Go to the Roanoke Rapids Daily Herald office and show them a copy of the letter of appointment. They will run the legal notice required by law for you.
3. Request that the bank give you an Estate checkbook. Deposit enough funds in the Estate account to pay all debts. Be sure that you pay all debts by check since the cancelled checks will be needed later in order to file accounts.

6. After three months you can file a final account and close the estate if all the debts of the decedent have been paid. Under the law you must keep the estate open for three months. You can take up to two years to file your final account. If you do this, you are required to file an annual in the estate after one year. Forms for filing the account are available in the Clerk's office.

A MESSAGE FROM SOCIAL SECURITY

Your funeral director is helping the Social Security office by giving you this information about Social Security benefits. If the deceased was receiving benefits, you need to contact us to report the death. If you think you may be eligible for survivor's benefits, you should contact us to apply.

HOW SOCIAL SECURITY HELPS FAMILIES

Social security survivors benefits help ease the financial burdens that follow a worker's death. Almost all children under age 18 will get monthly benefits if a working parent dies. Other family members may be eligible for benefits too. Anyone who has worked and paid Social Security (FICA) taxes has been earning Social Security benefits for his or her family. The amount of work needed to pay survivors benefits depends on the worker's age at the time of death. It may be as little as 1-1/2 years for a young worker. No one needs more that 10 years.

WHO CAN GET SURVIVORS BENEFITS

Here is a list of family members who usually can get benefits:

1. Widows and widowers age 60 or older.
2. Widows and widowers at any age if caring for the deceased's child (ren) who are under age 16 or disabled.
3. Divorced wives and husbands age 60 or older, if married to the deceased 10 years or more.
4. Widows, widowers, divorced wives, and divorced husbands age 50 or older, if they are disabled.
5. Children up to age 18.
6. Children age 18-19, if the attend elementary school or high school full time.
7. Children over age 18, if they became disabled before age 22.
8. The deceased worker's parents age 62 or older, if the were being supported by the worker.

A SPECIAL ONE-TIME PAYMENT

In addition to the monthly benefits for family members, a one-time payment of $255.00 can be paid to a spouse who was living with the worker at the time of death. If there is none, it can be paid to:

1. A spouse who is eligible for benefits.
2. A child or children eligible for benefits.

This payment cannot be made if there is no eligible spouse or child.

HOW TO APPLY FOR BENEFITS

Application for benefits can be made by telephone or by going to any Social Security office. Some of the documents shown on the list below may be needed. Do not delay the application because you haven't got all the information. If you don't have a document you need, Social Security can help you get it.

1. Your Social Security number and the deceased worker's Social Security number.
2. A death certificate. (Generally, the funeral director provides a statement that can be used for this purpose.)
3. Proof of the deceased worker's earnings for last year. (W-2 forms or self-employment tax return)
4. Your birth certificate.
5. A marriage certificate, if you are applying for benefits as a widow, widower, divorced wife or divorced husband.
6. A divorce decree, if you are applying for benefits as a divorced wife or husband.
7. Children's birth certificates and Social Security numbers, if applying for children's benefits
8. Your checking or savings account information, if you want direct deposit of your benefits.

You will need to submit original documents or copies certified by the issuing office. You can mail or bring them to the office; Social Security will make photocopies and return your documents.

MISCELLANEOUS

Thank You Notes: Combine food and flower notes. A note to anyone who did something for you such as minister, organist, soloist, beautician, barber, pallbearers and even a baby-sitter is most appreciative. Thank-you notes to those attending the visitation or services, or for sympathy cards are not necessary.

Honorariums: Remember your minister, soloist, organist with a monetary gift. They have given of their time and talent to be of service to you and your family. Those who came from a greater distance should be compensated for travel expenses. The amount of the honorarium is usually up to the family, but the following is an example:

Minister (local)	$75.00 and up
Minister (out of town)	$100.00 and up
Soloist	$50.00 and up
Organist	$50.00 and up

This depends on how far they have to travel to do this for you and what expenses they incurred.

Return Dishes: Return dishes that people brought food in as soon as possible. There may be another death within the community. Tin pie pans or disposable items are not generally returned to the owners.
